Selling my 928s4 with rare manual transmission. This is a great car has the more powerful engine and only 122k miles. Porsche enthusiast owned and maintained with a 20 year history of ownership this is not and very different than a recently bought and flipped car like most you will see on here. Check ownership history if you are buying a Porsche if the guy has owned it less than a year run,... Forest run! OK back to my beautiful car. Everything works paint is good tires excellent, all maint done by the book. I have owned this one and loved it for 20 plus years We just bought a 928 GTS so need to sell this to free up space in the garage. Will take aircooled 911 parts in trade plus cash, or 356 parts too. Porsche guy here so anything porsche considered. Let me know what you have . Fast and fun car.... u can be a U boat Capt!

These older 928 cars currently represent a great value for those that want the Porsche experience. Nice examples rarely if ever sell for over 5K but sure can bring a lot of joy to those owners on a budget who cannot quite afford a "real" aircooled Porsche. Buy mine for $3600 and have some fun!
