

The Showroom Stock A contest took place in a driving rain. Here D. J. Fazekas (2) meets the spinning 280ZX of Bill Sturgeon. The race was won by Ron Smaldone in a Ford Mustang, followed by Ken Williams, Carlos Ramirez and Fazekas, all in 924s.

John O'Steen savors his long-son defend his title in 1982.

Tom Brennan (center) drove the Herman + Miller 924 to a surprise victory in D Production over defending champion Doc Bundy (right). Bundy led the first eight laps of the ten lap contest before he was forced to come to a near stop when his windshield wiper broke in the heavy rain.

Porsche swept the first five pl